PAGET'S COLT LEADS FROM BAR-RIER TO WIRE.

Pulsus Wins Again for Gebhard-Steeplechase Easy for Walter Cleary—Charter Beats Beiment's Bridlepath-Five Faverites Lose at Brighton Beach Track.

The fall meeting of the Brighton Beach Racing Association opened with auspiciou weather and a large crowd at the beach track yesterday. The feature was the first half of the $15,000 Produce Stakes, for two-yearold colts and geldings; distance six furlongs.

Sydney Paget scratched both Woodsaw and Tongorder, leaving the Hastings colt Dia-mond to carry his conspicuous colors. But Diamond did not catch the fancy of the wise men at 7 to 2, for James R. Keene's Wild Mint and John W. Schorr's Jack Lory were made equal favorites at 12 to 5, with Bedouin played down to 17 to 5. Owing to the angle from which the crowd looked toward the barrier the start seemed to give Diamond much the best of the send-off. But as a matter of fact the field left the gate in unison, Diamond, however, breaking much faster than the others and rushing into the lead at a terrific gait. He opened up a gap of three lengths, with Bedouin and Wild Mint following him close together and the others strung out. At the turn Bedouin dropped back and Wild Mint made a bold attempt to get up. But Lyne rugged the rail with the Paget colt, who never faltered and came home a handy winner by a length and a half in 1:13 1-5. Wild Mint remained in the place, three lengths in front of Jack Lory, who beat Bedouin a length.

Although Fred Gebhard's Pulsus won his last sace in a gallop, he was allowed to go back in the betting to 5 to 1, in the handicap at a mile and an eighth. Dekaber and Dalesman being the first two choices at 13 to 5 and 16 to 5, respectively. Ostrich, too, was a hot tip, Resetint receded from 16 to 5 to 4 to 1. H. Phillips made all the running with Pulsus, who is a greatly improved colt, and won handily with him by half a length in the smash-ing good time of 1:51 3-5, only three-fifths of cond slower than the track record. Ostrich, who was the runner-up all the way, took second money from Dekaber by two lengths. Rosetint ran her worst race of the year and was last.

Collector Jessup, a 2 to 5 favorite in the first event, for three-year-olds, at six furlongs, won handily by three parts of a length from Duchess Ollie, 5 to 1, who led to the stretch John Sanford's Adriuths, 12 to 1, was third, two lengths behind, beating Ancestor half a length in a drive, with Wotan a head back. The time was 1:13.

Walter Cleary, backed down to 2 to 1, showed much of his old form in the steeplechase, which he won in a gallop by fifteen lengths after leading from start to finish. Flying Buttress, the 9 to 5 favorite, was caught in the run home on the flat and beaten a length and a half for the place by Paulaker, a 20 to 1 shot. The time was 4:26 2-5.

The fifth event, for maiden mares and fillies, at a mile and a sixteenth, proved to be the most interesting race of the day. August Belmont's Bridlepath was the choice at 11 to 20. Lyne, who had the mount, let Fred Gebhard's Nuit Blanche, 4 to 1, and Rosie Dinham, 14 to 1, go to the front for a spell heartbreaking pacemaking. But when he let Mr. Belmont's Octagon filly down at the head of the stretch he found that he had to deal with H. J. Morris's Charter, 5 to 1, who had closed from behind. Redfern put up a powerful finish on Charter, who won by a nose, with Bridlepath beating Nuit Blanche a scant length. The time was 1:48 1-5.

S. S. Brown's Thirty Third, 5 to 1, made a runaway of the last race, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, and came home, ok jumping, with five lengths to spare, in 1:07 8-5. John W. Schorr's Vidalia, 15 to 1 best Brush Up, 16 to 5 favorite, a head for she place. Five favorites were beaten.

The two hooked up at the final aixwenth pole and raced as a team to the wire, where the Hildreth mare won by a nod. Delagoa was nearly backed off the board, being pounded from 7 to 5 to 13 to 20. Major Daingerfield will probably be played, but McChesney and The Picket will also receive much support, with Afri-cander and Eugenia Burch the probable outsiders. In the first race, at six furlongs, Arsenal, Schoharie, Lem Reed and Clovis have a chance. First Mason has received top weight in the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, but St. Valentine, Ormonde's Right and Grey Frair look formidable at the weights. Britisher and Pasadena are asked to give weight to Dandelion, Belle Strome and Lochinvar in the third event, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs. In the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth, South Trimble, Stolen Moments, Gay Lothario and Leader figure prominently, while in the lastrace, for maiden two-year-old-fillies, Linda Lee, My Buela, Fancy Dress, Myopia and Miss Modesty look the best. SURPRISES AT HARNESS RACES. Even Money Favorite, Red Bird, Distanced in First Heat at Boston. BOSTON, Sept.12.-Over a track that was fully three seconds slow, the opening day's racing of the fall meeting of the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' Association this afternoon was of much interest, as a number of the best light harness stars went down in defeat. The defeat of Red Bird, who ruled favorite in the 2:06 pace west down in deleat. Ine deleat of Red Bird, who ruled favorite in the 2:06 pace was the biggest upset, as he brought $1:00 against $1:00 for the field and was outside the banner the first time around. Ecstatic, who was well thought of, continued her winning career. She, with the favorite, had her troubles in the opening circuit, the heat going to the New England bred gelding Anidrosis over Frank Yokum.

The second heat saw Ecstatic go away better and at the quarter she was stepping in front. Down the backstretch Anidrosis was second. Around the turn Ecstatic held her position and in a race down the stretch had all she could do to beat the first heat winner by a nose. In the third heat Estatic won as she pleased.

John Caldwell, the favorite, had no trouble winning in straight heats in the 2:25 trot, while the 2:10 pace was split up, the favorite winning the opening circuit from Peeler Patron. The latter polished off the next three heats handily.

Alta McDonald will send Major Delmar against the world's trotting record of 2:02% on Wednesday, and if successful in the attempt on that day he will send the champion gelding a mile on Friday against the high wheel sulky record of 2:08%, held by Maud S.

John Piening Falls to Throw Olsen. John Peining, who is meeting all comers on the wrestling mat at Luna Park, last night tackled Olsen, a husky Swede Piening undertook to throw his man in fifteen minutes, or forfeit $50. He failed to down his man, and the Swede took the money. To-night Piening will go up against a Pole named Bruugglio. BRIGHTON OFFICIALS NOT RESPO-SIBLE FOR MESSENGERS,

But the Betting in the Grand Stand Goes On Just the Same—Drake Wins Heavily on Watter Cleary in the Steeplechase, but Meets With Later Reverses.

When racegoers passed through the gates of the Brighton track yesterday they saw posted in conspicuous places the following notice signed by the Brighton Beach Racing

"The public is hereby notified that no person has the authority of this association or any of its officers to take or receive bets in the this association or to act as messenger making such bets."

In the grand stand, however, there were the usual number of messengers blocking the aisles and calling out the prices to speculative women. There were the same old squab-bles about odds and wagers and the same old general turmoil. The notice quoted above was taken to mean that the track officials wish the public to understand that they cannot be held responsible for the shortcomings of the irresponsible persons who collect wagers for women with the supposed intention of placing the money in the ring. The Jockey Club does not recognize betting, and neither does the Brighton track, it would seem. But the betting among the women goes on merrily and the messengers are recording wagers daily in direct violation of the letter and spirit of the law. Naturally the question arises, if the track officials do not authorize these messangers to operate from day to day and the Jockey Club does not recognize betting, who is responsible for John A. Drake found time to visit the track yesterday, in spite of outside business interests, which, he says, will be the means of keeping him away some of the time in future. Incidentally his money, though not placed the usual commissioners, served to back Walter Cleary down from 4 to 1 to twos in the steeplechase. It was said that Drake had a $10,000 wager on this successful jumper and that with $20,000 winnings in hand he proceeded to unload some of it on several losers later on. The story that Drake and Gates intend to retire absolutely from the turf be cause of recent heavy losses is generally

"Because they have dropped $150,000 to the layers in the last ten days," said a leading speculator, "does not mean that they will quit, leaving this amount with the books. They have the bankroll and when they see bet that they will send their money into the ring in chunks. Drake and Gates are the men to throw up the sponge because of a little adversity like this. They will stick to the game and will be heard from later." Sydney Paget has established a record which is of an unusual nature. He has produced during the season seventeen win-ning two-year-olds. Diamond, who won the Produce Stakes yesterday was bred by August Belmont and was purchased last year by Paget when the Belmont stable was sold out. Diamond's success was the seventeenth triumph for a two-year-old sent to the post by Jack Joyner. The Produce Stakes, or rather the first part of it, was worth $5,294.87 to the winner. Last year that filly part of the race was worth more than that for the colts and geldings, but this has been reversed this year. Yesterday's race was the third running of the stakes, Clarence H. Mackay's Mexican, 119 pounds, winning in 1902 in 1:12 3-5. E. R. Thomas's Stalwart,

28 pounds, won last year in 1:13. "Mr. Chamblet." in accordance with the announcement made some time ago that he would retire from the steeplechase game at the end of this year, has already disposed of six of his stable of jumpers. Of the remainder, those that are not sold privately will be placed under the hammer at Morris Park. Land of Clover and Zinziber, the best winners in the stable, will be sent back to the farm and pass the rest of their days in

For the first time in a dozen years Al Adler, who makes himself useful at all the tracks as an assistant to the clerk of the scales, was absent from the track yesterday suffering from an attack of pleurisy. He will be on deck again in a day or two.

On the official programme yesterday the best time of each race was printed. As there was light betting on some of the races, there was no little faultfinding because the minutes earlier. It was suggested that by starting the races at 2:15 instead of 2:30 the public would be enabled to get back to the city for supper without undue hustling. The track management, however, was com pelled to fix an exact time, every half hour, for the horses to go to the post, so that those stabled at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay could get over to the Beach in plenty of time without running the chances of incurrin

Neither O'Neill nor Bullman had a mount yesterday. O'Neill was engaged to ride Jocund, while Bullman was to have had the mount on Major Pelham, but both horses were scratched at a late hour. Graziallo has recovered from the kick he received in the September Stakes from Ocean Tide, and will be able to fill his engagements at Gravesend.

After Redfern had returned to the scales with Charter in the fifth race he dismounted without asking for the usual permission from the judges and was fined $10 for the over-

Charter, by the way, is a full sister to Ethics, being a daughter of Charaxus-Ethie. Lyne was criticised for his handling of Bridlepath. He took the Octagon filly too far back at the outset and did not make his run with her soon enough. The sure thing bettors went down with a dull thud as a re sult. Bridlepath is the only one of Octagon's get that has not won a race or stake. The others are Woodsaw, Aurumaster and the great Beldame.

The $1,000 gold cup, which will go to the winner of the Brighton Cup next Saturday, was on exhibition yesterday and was greatly admired. It is a magnificent trophy in point of work manship. Horace Egbert, representing the new California Jockey Club, is here looking for en-tries to the stakes to be run on the Coast this Starter Fitzgerald said that because of Diamond's tendency to kick at the post the colt was held by two men on the extreme outside of the track and that he was stand-ing still when the gate went up. Shaw and Gannon were each suspended for one day for disobedience at the barrier.

H. T. Griffin started Sweet Pepper, the filly who got him into trouble at New Orleans last winter, in the fifth race. She was well played, but could not get in the money. There was a who was backed down to threes in this event. but she was three parts of a length behind the third horse. Bob Tucker had the usual good wager on Thirty Third at fives.

John E. Madden started Wild Irishman, a half brother to the Futurity winner Yanker colt had a chance and that Madden was about to pull off one of his characteristic tricks, but as no smart money came into the ring the colt was allowed to run practically unbacked.

Joe Yeager and his friends stood to win a good wager on Duchess Ollie in the first race. but the Flying Dutchman filly was just a

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK. ATLANTIC WINS CAPE MAY CUP. NEW YORK AMERICANS GAIN. Wilson Marshall's Schooner Beats Endy-

mien and Vergemere in Long Race. Wilson Marshall's big three masted schooner Atlantic won the Cape May Challenge cup and the special prize offered by C. L. F. Robin-son. She finished off Sandy Hook lightship at 3:58:16 yesterday morning. The Endy-mion finished at 5:03:18 and the Vergemere withdrew early on Sunday morning and ran for Delaware Breakwater. She arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The race was closely contested from the start They were sent off in a light wind from the southeast by east on Saturday afternoon. The signal was made from the flagship Delaware off Buoy 5 off the point of Sandy Hook. The wind was so light that the Vergemere was the only one to cross on time. She went over the line at 1:25. The Atlantic was handicapped 6 minutes and the Endymion 26 minutes. The Vergemere soon threw away the advantage she had by making a useless tack, and the Atlantio took the lead. When south of Seabright the Atlantic ran out of the wind and the Vergemere, catching a new wind from the northeast, first drew up on the Atlantic and passed that yacht. The Atlantic got the new wind at 6 o'clock, and with spinnaker se kept company with the Vergemere Barnegat Light was made at 8:30 o'clock and then the two boats indulged in luffing matches and got off the course, enabling the Endymion to pass them. At midnight the Atlantic bore off, passed astern of the Vergemere and stood for the turning mark.

The times taken as the yachts turned the The times taken as the yachts turned the Five Fathom Shoal lightship off Cape May on Sunday morning were: Endymion, 3:01; Vergemere, 3:08; Atlantic, 3:23. The wind by that time had freshened and came from the north northeast and a heavy sea was running. The Endymion and Vergemere stood on the starboard tack inshore and the Atlantic made a port tack out to sea. The Atlantic gradually gained the leading position, and at 5:35 those on the Atlantic saw the Vergemere pay off and head for the Delaware Breakwater.

At 6:30 o'clock the Atlantic had the Endymion two miles under her lee. The wind was quite strong and the sea heavy, so that topsails were taken in. On Sunday afternoon the wind moderated and at 7 o'clock in the evening it was almost a calm. At 10 o'clock topsails were set. BEAT WASHINGTONS AND DRAW CLOSE TO LEADERS.

Bostons Win the First Game and Lose the Second in Philadelphia—Chicagos Defeat Clevelands and Tie the Quaker Team-St. Louis Outplays Detroits.

Winning from the Washingtons yesterday while the Bostons were breaking even in Philaedelphia, the New York Americans drew up to within one point of the leaders. The Chicagos shut out Cleveland and tied the Philadelphias for third place. St. Louis won a ten-inning game from Detroit. The New York, 4; Washington, 2.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 4: WASHINGTON, 2. The New York Americans had to work hard all the time to beat the Washingtons yesterday. They were not in a comfortable frame of mind regarding the result until the last man was out. They were bothered a good deal by Townsend's pitching, but they hit him hard enough to have won by a bigger margin. Chesbro easily excelled the Washington boxman, and had the New Yorks played the game up to the mark the Senators would not have had a run.

Dougherty's batting played havoc with the Senators. Patrick tore off a seething three-bagger in the first inning and scored on Elberfeld's troublesome bounder to Cassidy. With a Washingtonian on third in the first Williams retired the first batter after a fine stop. An equally lustrous stop by Mullen shut New York off in the third after McGuire had opened the inning with a two-bagger.

The Washingtons scored once in the fourth. The Washingtons scored once in the fourth. With one out Stahl bunted safely. Huelsman beat out a hit to Conroy, but was forced by Mullen, Stahl going to third. He and Mullen then worked a double steal, which would have been blocked easily if Moduire had made a good throw to Williams. As it was, Williams could not get the ball back in time to check Stahl at the plate.

Ganzel's two bagger and Chesbro's ripper to right gave New York a run in the fifth. In the sixth Hill walked and went to third on Stahl's hit to right. Huelsman struck out. Mullen gave Williams an easy chance. Williams got the ball at first after fumbling long enough for Hill to score. With two New Yorkers out in the same inning, Williams poked a safe fly to right. A wild pitch put him on second. Both Hill and Cassidy got under Ganzel's pop fly, with the result that Hill made a rank muff, and Williams tallied on the misplay.

Dougherty ploughed up the soil with a scorcher to right in the seventh, on which he completed the circuit. The Senators had two on bases, with only one out, in the ninth. Chesbro fielded Donovan's clip to first and made it two out, and Keeler prevented further trouble by making a pretty running catch of Clarke's slash. The score:

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—The New Yorks lost their first game of the present series with the Boston Nationals this afternoon by their inability to bunch hits when they would develop into runs and through the failure of Mathewson to be effective with men on base. The visitors started in to win, and in the second inning Dahlen, the first man upsmashed out a rattling single. Dunn flied out to Fisher, but Gilbert helped Dahlen to third by a single to right. The plucky shortstop was able to score a moment later on Warner's single.

In the sixth the cripples made amends. After Barclay, the first man up, had been permitted to resume his bench seat. Tenney singled. Abbaticchio did likewise, Tenney singled. Abbaticchio did likewise, Tenney sole second, and both he and Tenney scored Boston's first runs on Cooley's rattling double. Again, in the seventh, to clinch the game, the would-be tail-enders made one more run possible. Moran was first up and cracked out a burning triple. Needham went out, Dahlen to McGann, but Willis came to the rescue and brought Moran home with a neat single. Geier sacrificed, Dunn to McGann advancing Willis two bases on the play. Barclay repeated his previous feat going out Gilbert to McGann.

The heavy stick work of the Philadeiphias at Washington Park yesterday swamped the Brooklyns. In both games the tail-enders drove the ball in various and sundry directions and carried off a couple of victories attended by liberal scoring. In fielding, too, the home talent showed up as an inferior aggregation, being outplayed in this department in both contests. Gleason and Babb were the heaviest hitters of the day each adding five safeties to his collection. The score:
